HOSPITAL CRISIS

RED ALERT: Under-pressure Northampton General Hospital is experiencing its busiest winter on record as patient numbers surge

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

Northampton General Hospital is on 'red alert' as it struggles to cope with its busiest winter on record.

An unprecedented surge in patients to its A&E department has forced the hospital to cancel routine operations and outpatient appointments.

People are being urged to avoid A&E if they can by going to pharmacies, booking GP appointments or going to urgent care centres.

The hospital saw 2,772 patients attend A&E in the 10 days up to Monday, 751 of whom needed emergency admission.

The situation is very similar at Kettering General Hospital, which has also been placed on 'red alert'.

Debbie Needham, chief operating officer at Northampton General Hospital, said: "The situation here is very similar to the situation across the country.

"We are urging people only to come to hospital in a real emergency and to use every possible alternative rather than using A&E."

Editor's Letter

How long does it take to get through Gas Street jam?

I was driving out of town the other day just after dropping the kids at school and I found myself needing to use some facilities.

I weighed a few things up in my head and decided I might just as well go home rather than take my chances with a public convenience somewhere along the way.

At the time it didn't seem like a crazy decision. In my mind I was also piously avoiding buying a coffee and bacon sandwich at the garage and I couldn't be more than ten minutes away from my front door anyway...

So I crossed the Bedford Road interchange and fed into what I assumed was the last of the rush hour back-up of traffic going into Northampton.

After a few minutes I realised we hadn't moved very far and all the lanes were full. This was clearly more than the push and shove of getting to work.

I crawled past the car dealerships and deceptively the traffic started flowing again up the hill by Becket's Park.

The right turn past the hospital looked as clogged as ever but the left lane towards the Gas Street roundabout was clear.

> ‘The route was clear like the route to the iceberg was clear before Titanic hit it’

Yeah, like the route to the iceberg was clear before Titanic hit it.

The approach to the Gas Street roundabout from Morrisons was funnelling three lanes of traffic into one.

I had barely got to Morrisons before the crawl started again.

As far as getting to the loo was concerned perhaps the second worse scenario had come up. The feeling was kind of wearing off but after causing myself all this trouble I was going to go whether I wanted to or not.

I ended up not really being able to explain to My One True Love why I had taken a forty minute detour home for a loo break that I could have taken at my destination if I had simply kept on driving.

The moral of the story is this: Do not go anywhere near the Gas Street roundabout while the roadworks are on. It is a carnival of madness and despair.

Treasure trove of lost property

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

An itinerary for a trip around Europe, a framed family tree, a suitcase of children's Disney outfits and a traffic lollipop stick are some of the weird and wonderful items left behind in Travelodges in Northampton in the past 12 months.

Across the UK, some of the more bizarre items include a Coutts cheque book, a husband, a Krypton Digital storm gaming laptop, a prosthetic hand, a love letter written 40 years ago and a pug called Dancer.

And it seems Northampton played its part last year in filling Travelodge hotels' unique lost property cupboard.

In Northampton Central a detailed business proposal which included a well-known company's new website launch plans were found, as well as a diamond watch, while in Northampton Round Spinney the itinerary for a trip around Europe was left behind along with the case full of Disney outfits.

In Northampton Wootton a guest forgot to pack their large church candle while others left a gingerbread house and small children's bouncy castle.

It was at Northampton Upton Way the framed family tree was discovered and most bizarrely the traffic lollipop stick.

A Travelodge spokesperson said: "The list showed some unique items left behind,"

Lady stuck on A45 gives birth to boy

A pregnant woman in labour who was rescued by police after becoming stuck in a traffic jam has given birth to a healthy baby boy.

The new mum, who is still yet name her son, was stuck on the A45 in Northampton on Boxing Day after a bus fire closed the road.

The fire was blocking the woman's route to hospital but fortunately two police officers came to her rescue and gave her a lift to hospital.

PC Dave Lee tweeted on Saturday: "Just had some exciting news that have been keeping a lot of people intrigued this last week. Pleased to say the lady we helped on the A45 had a baby boy. Mum and baby doing well."

Hot spot to live

From Poets Corner to Hollywood

Reporter Lawrence John chats to James McInerney, a Northampton poet whose work is set to be seen and heard in a US TV sci-fi show

TALENT: Poet James McInerney

ACTION: The filming of Inner Dimension

James McInerney has gone from Milton Street, part of an area of Northampton known as Poets Corner, to Hollywood.

It has not been an easy road but for this poet it has proved to be the making of him, and his career.

You may not have heard about James but he is a big hit on social media and his poems are set to appear in a major US TV show called 'Inner Dimension'.

It's not bad for a lad who used to attend Trinity Upper in Northampton and had no interest at all in poems or ever believed he would make a living from writing them.

James, 37, has been working at his craft for the past nine years and has built up a large fan base and a good reputation.

He said: "I have been writing poetry since 1998.

"As a result of promoting myself on Facebook and Twitter, people have seen my work, liked it and shared it.

"I have not only done this but have diversified by getting actors to read my work out and post them on YouTube as well.

"When I got asked if my work could be used in a sci-fi show called 'Inner Dimension' I was taken aback.

"The TV series is due out in 2015. It's kind of like Lost and Dr Who mixed. They are currently filming season one and have a really good cast and team.

"It was very bizarre to know that a guy signing books at a library event was on the same day having his words filmed in America for a TV show.

"The show bought my book straight away from Amazon and I had to sign a contract to allow them to use it and my words in the show.

"They have already filmed the scenes incorporating my words into an emotional scene with an actress from the show reading poetry from my book as part of the storyline."

One of the interesting facts about James is the way he writes.

He does not sit down in an attic like some romantic poets with a blank piece of paper and let the inspiration come to him Instead, he listens to music from films.

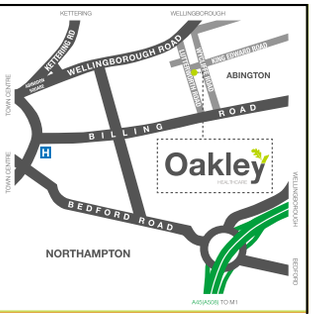

James said: "I listen to the music and write down the words which go to make up the poem.

"Someone once asked me did I know anyone else who did this? I said no but this is what I do and always have."

85 drink-drivers caught by cops

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

Northamptonshire Police arrested 85 people for drink-driving in the county between December 1, 2014 and January 5, 2015.

This represents a drop of 21 per cent on the previous year's figures.

The decrease came after 2,665 people took breath tests at the side of the road during the festive period and police followed a hard-hitting campaign to get across the message 'Everyone hates drink-drivers'. Sergeant Tony Hopkins, who led the operation, said: "We're determined to reduce cases of drink-driving in Northamptonshire, so I'm pleased to see the number of people we caught over the festive period is lower than last year.

"That suggests our message is getting across to drivers.

"The vast majority of people we stopped had not had any alcohol before they got into their car, which is the only way to make sure you will not be caught drinking and driving. For those who continue to ignore the message and get behind the wheel after having a drink, the new year will bring some unpleasant news for them with the prospect of court appearances or large fines hanging over their heads."

Those who are found guilty of drink-driving could face time in prison, large fines and a driving ban.

Anyone with information about people who drink and drive can call the Drivewatch hotline on 0800 174615.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Trevor Skidmore feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Northampton, Kettering, Wellingborough & Corby areas and Trevor is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Trevor a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Child services are 'improving'

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

Northamptonshire County Council's child protection service has breathed a huge sigh of relief after Ofsted inspectors deemed it to be making satisfactory progress.

In February 2013 it was rated inadequate by the education watchdog following an inspection which put it on par with failing authorities such as Doncaster and Birmingham.

If the government inspectors had found it to be unsatisfactory during its inspection last month the service would have been taken away from the local authority's remit and an outside agency brought it to run it.

Ofsted deemed the council was taking appropriate steps to improve the service after it was given such a poor rating in 2013.

Cllr Heather Smith, county council deputy leader and cabinet member for children's services, said: "We could only be found to be satisfactory or unsatisfactory.

"If we had been found to have been unsatisfactory then an agency would have been imposed on us and they would have come in and run the service.

"We have worked hard to address the issues and the inspection team has recognised our commitment to improve child protection services.

"Now we need to move forward on continuing to improve the help, support and intervention we provide to ensure the safety and wellbeing of children in Northamptonshire."

Lady's Lane to close for three days

The next phase of work to prepare to demolish Greyfriars will begin later this month.

Lady's Lane will be closed to traffic from 7pm on Friday, January 16 until 6am on Monday, January 19.

In 2013 Northampton Borough Council started the process of decommissioning and demolishing the old bus station building.

Tons of material has already been taken away.

The next phase of work will involve a crane and work on the north side of the building to remove part of the tower and bridge.

While this work is completed Lady's Lane will be closed to traffic with diversions in place for motorists and alternative arrangements made with the bus operators.

OFFENDED: Helen received the tweet after posting this picture of her holding a loyalty card

Fake Waitrose Twitter account abused customer

A fake Waitrose Twitter account has been shut down after it abused customers.

The account, @WaitroseCCare, was shut down on Tuesday after it tweeted abusive messages to customers, one of which included the word py, referring to travellers.

Helen Coope, of Northampton, was one of the customers who received an offensive tweet from the account after she posted a picture on Twitter of her holding a Waitrose loyalty card, which she had been expecting for six months.

The fake account tweeted to her: "Don't share this with any of your py ASDA friends."

A spokesperson for Waitrose said: "We can confirm that this is not a Waitrose account.

"This message was not sent by Waitrose.

"We have reported it to Twitter and the account has been shut down."

'Avoid A&E if you can', say hospitals

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

Two county hospitals have issued a joint plea for people to try to use alternatives to A&E departments after an 'unprecedented' demand for services this winter.

The busiest winter ever recorded for Northampton and Kettering hospitals has led to them postponing some routine operations and outpatient appointments.

Northampton General Hospital (NGH) has opened a further 47 beds in areas including outpatient departments. An 83 extra beds have been made available at Kettering General.

Both hospitals are now on 'red alert'.

A spokesman for NGH said: "We are dealing with unprecedented levels for demand for our services and that has had an impact on waiting times for assessment.

"We've taken steps to ensure adequate staffing and safe effective care for the most critically ill patients, including cancelling routine operations and some appointments. We're continuing to work closely with our social care and health partners to ensure beds are available to us as quickly as possible so we can discharge those patients who are well enough to leave.

"Our patients' safety remains our main priority during this period which is why we've taken the measures we have to address the current pressures."

Have your say
Go to www.northampton-news-hp.co.uk

Health watchdog Healthwatch Northamptonshire (HN) has also commented on the situation.

Rosie Newbigging, chief executive of HN, said: "The current situation is intense.

"We published a report last year on patient experience of A&E at NGH. Two thirds of the people we spoke to said that they had tried to get help from other services such as the 111 service, GP services including out of hours, but that these services had either directed patients to A&E or were not readily available in the case of GP services.

"This is a whole system issue which needs a whole system solution."

GET READY FOR THE WINDY WEATHER

Jamie Dunlop

Jamie Dunlop blogs on the weather. He lives in Northampton and works for Cotters Insurance.

Some of you may have seen some snow in 2014 in the county when rain briefly turned to snow on Boxing Day evening in parts of Northampton. It was the only day of the year where I saw snow falling & settling, even if it was only for an hour or so.

There's no sign of any snow in the forecasts for the next couple of weeks but as the Jet Stream roars into action at speeds of up to 230mph we will see some windy weather over the next few days. Let's look at things in a bit more detail.

Today will see overnight rain clear to leave a mainly dry, bright & breezy day with sunny spells. Highs of 8c.

Friday will be windy with gusts around 45 mph. There will be some rain at times but also drier brighter spells as well. Temperatures could touch a springlike 14c in the county but the wind will take the edge of that figure.

The wind gust prediction chart (pictured) from the ECM computer model is suggesting gusts over 60mph in the county on Saturday. If the models firm up on winds this strong I would expect the Met Office to issue warnings over the next couple of days.

Stay up to date with the potential stormy conditions by following @NNweather on Twitter.

Enjoy the rest of your week.

Jamie.

Northampton needs an undercover coach station

Surely the town needs a central under cover coach station?

At the moment people have to wait outside in the elements in Victoria Road with no toilets. Kindly promote my request because people who use public transport have to walk to Victoria Road to catch a coach with a suitcase and stand in all weathers without a toilet - it is a disgrace.

Thank you for supporting NSPCC in Northants

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of your readers who have supported the work of the NSPCC during the last year.

Without the backing of the local Northamptonshire people the NSPCC would not be able to help abused children rebuild their lives, or be there for parents who desperately need advice and support.

As we move into 2015 I would like to appeal to your readers to make a very special kind of New Year's resolution for the NSPCC.

'Just One Day' is a call for people to come forward and volunteer some time to support our work – even if people can only spare one day, it will be a massive help.

There are many different ways that people can volunteer their time including holding a local fundraising event, helping at one of our events, or becoming an NSPCC ChildLine Schools Service volunteer.

Abuse ruins childhood, but it can be prevented. That's why the NSPCC is here. That's what drives our work, and that's why – as long as there's abuse the NSPCC will fight for every childhood.

Please join us in the fight for every childhood by volunteering some time to support the NSPCC, whether you can spare a day a week or just one day.

To find out more call The Midlands local Fundraising Office on 0844 8920217; email midlandsappeals@nspcc.org.uk or log on to nspcc.org.uk/volunteer

Councillors switch sides

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

The Labour Party has hit back after two Northampton Borough Councillors defected to the Conservatives.

Cllr Mohammed Aziz (Castle ward) and Cllr Nahar Begum (Trinity ward) left Labour made the move this week.

Responding to the defection, a Labour Party spokesperson said: "Northampton Labour is not surprised that these two councillors have defected.

"One of them was not allowed back to stand again for the Labour Party at the forthcoming council elections because her communication skills were not deemed to be adequate.

"The other faced difficulties with reselection in his ward.

"The Labour Party is committed to selecting good quality candidates that are representative of the communities they wish to serve.

"We offer training and support to help potential candidates meet that standard."

Cllr Aziz said: "I am very impressed with what the Conservatives are doing to turn our town around and it is clear that they are the only party capable of improving Northampton.

"I became a councillor to make things better for the people I represent and for the town I live in and the best way I can do that is as a member of the Conservative Group."

Cllr Begum added: "The Conservatives are doing something positive for our town and I want to support them and be part of that."

FEEL GOOD FACTOR

Good living supported by Trilogy Gym

Time to take the plunge...

SWIM NEMO: It's never too late to learn skills in the water

H&P Editor Steve Scoles continues on his quest for fitness and health

For an adult swimming is easy not to think about. I learned at school and for the next 40 years did nothing much more about it than swim in the sea and splash around in the pool on holiday.

In many ways I probably would have been better off as a non swimmer.

I would have felt some kind of pressure to learn at the back of my mind and might have got involved with lessons sooner.

Instead it's come up as part of the general health and fitness experiment that has emerged out of my training sessions with Martin Cole at Trilogy Gym.

"Why not give it a go?" they said.

I probably screwed my face up a bit.

"You wait and see. Barbara is really good..."

Fast-forward in time a few weeks and when I ask Barbara Brouwer for some biographical details at the poolside she shrugs.

"I'm Australian, how about that?"

It doesn't sound like much information but it actually says quite a lot.

Barbara is a tall, blonde, swimming instructor from a country where health and exercise is seen as straightforward common sense.

Barbara, for instance, is specially trained in teaching adults to swim.

Us older folks can have all sorts of issues that make us a trickier proposition than children when it comes to learning water skills.

For once it is not necessarily our physical limitations that are the biggest problem.

Exercising in water supports your weight and assists your circulation.

But dealing with issues like embarrassment or ingrained anxieties about being in the water need to be tackled with smart coaching.

"We offer classes to people of all ages because swimming is not just an activity like dancing or fooball. It is a life skill," said Barbara.

She set me off down the pool to have a look at what I came up with when asked to do the crawl stroke.

I hadn't got half way before Barbara had a list of things to start tweaking and adjusting.

I needed to be straighter, to get my face under water, to change the way I kicked...

In truth I was amazed Barbara was able to have such a quick impact on my aqua skills. She got me doing things I wouldn't have thought I could do very quickly. I'll keep you posted on my progress...

Children in county are overweight

New data has revealed 30.8% of children in their last year of primary school in Northamptonshire are already overweight or obese.

A new Change4Life campaign launched by Public Health England encourages parents to cut down the amount of sugar their children consume by making one or more simple swaps.

Public Health England states eating and drinking too much sugar means extra calories

The new figures reveal in Northamptonshire 21.4% of children start school either overweight or obese, this then becomes 30.8% for those in their last year of primary school.

Professor Kevin Fenton, National Director of Health and Wellbeing at Public Health England, said: "Reducing sugar intake is important for the health of our children, eating too much sugar and the impact this has on our health is evident.

"This year we want to be single minded, which is why we are focusing on sugar alone.

A new dawn for

BY NICHOLAS BIEBER
nicholas.bieber@hpnorthants.co.uk

A new company has taken over the management of Northampton's 12,000 council homes in a bid to rectify what some tenants have described as '30 years of neglect'.

Northampton Partnership Homes (NPH) officially took over the day-to-day running of Northampton Borough Council's housing stock on Monday at an official launch ceremony at the Guildhall, which saw ceremonial 'keys' handed over to its new chairman David Latham.

The company will operate as an arm's length management organisation led by a 15-strong board comprising tenants, council officials and independent members in a move to enable better standards of living.

At the launch, Cllr Mary Markham, cabinet member for housing, said: "This is such a historical day for Northampton, a day we have been working towards for two years. It's quite emotional.

"It's a new dawn and a new beginning and we can look forward to a better future for council housing in the town.

"This administration needed to look at social housing and how we operated, and I'm not proud to stand here and say how we looked after the properties we provided, but with the financial restraints it was all we could possibly provide.

"This new organisation, who I have every confidence in going forward, have the right people on board and have more finances available to them and will help to provide better homes and environments.

"We hear people say 'that's only a council estate'. How can they tell? Because it looks so bad. Why? Because we haven't spent the money. It's not the tenants fault, it's the authorities' fault.

"Hopefully from today, all that will change and people living in council houses in the town will start to see better living conditions."

Under the new structure, tenants will play a direct part in making decisions about the housing service and how money is invested to improve their homes.

The new model will see tenants given the opportunity to sit on six different 'improvement panels', which focus on areas of the housing service such as repairs, neighbourhoods and the Decent Homes

One council tenant, Tony Mallard, 82, of Broadmead Avenue, told the Northants H&P: "We are now looking forward to a new horizon.

Three boys have been arrested following the major blaze at a multi-storey car park in Corby town centre.

More than 30 firefighters were called to the Willow Place car park on December 30 at 6.15pm to battle the fire which lasted for over 90 minutes.

The blaze left behind extensive damage to the exterior walls of the car park but the structure itself is believed to be safe. The fire did not spread into the main shopping area and there were no serious injuries reported. One person was treated for smoke inhalation.

The day after the fire officers arrested three boys, aged 12, 13 and 14, in connection with the fire which is believed to have been started deliberately.

Two other teenage boys, aged 14 and 17, and two men, aged 19 and 20, were arrested on the night of the fire.

All seven people arrested in connection with the incident have since been released on bail pending further enquiries.

Police are still appealing for information and would like to speak to anyone who may have been in the area that evening.

Anyone with information is asked to contact police on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

A New Year Message from Nigel Farage

Dear People of Northampton,

2015 will be a time of change. For the first time there is a good chance you will elect a UKIP candidate as your next MP.

Both Michael Ellis and Sally Keeble, your MPs for the past 17 years, are excellent people and have done a great job for the people of Northampton North.

But the change that is coming is not a reflection of the good work Michael and Sally have done but just the people's desire for a new approach to politics that is happening not only in Northampton but all over Britain.

There are many reasons for this. UKIP is the only party that has firm, workable and solid ideas for improving the service you get from Northampton General Hospital. UKIP also wants to have a debate about the incredible expansion of Northampton that is currently seeing the local population grow by as much as three to four per cent a year, something that quite frankly is unsustainable.

Don't get me wrong, UKIP is not against progress but it is against mindless progress, where everything gets bigger just for the sake of it. You will have noticed the traffic chaos that is engulfing Northampton caused by over expansion - someone has to call for some common sense thinking to a process that threatens the whole way of life of Northampton's citizens.

UKIP is the party that will bring true democracy to Northampton people. We will instigate local referendums so you, not civil servants in London, can decide the future of your town.

One thing I can promise you - after May 2015, your UKIP MP will put party politics aside and fight tooth and nail for all of the 65,000 citizens of Northampton North, regardless of who they are, what their backgrounds are, where they came from or who they voted for.

UKIP is a party of all the people for all the people, a notion that has largely been forgotten in politics these past 50 years.

Thanks for reading this and I am looking forward to visiting Northampton soon.

...or none of the above?

On 8th May the people of Northampton can wake up to a new beginning:

An MP with a can-do, not won't-do, mentality.

An MP who understands Northampton.

An MP who actually likes people.

Vote UKIP on 7th May for a better future for Northampton.

Welcome. . .

What's the first thing you should do when you want to move? Sit down.
It sounds like I'm talking in riddles but it's really very simple. Sit down with your Herald and Post property supplement and see what's out there.
You'll do a lot of research whether you are buying or selling so make sure you start with the newspaper with the biggest circulation in the county.
And in these pages you'll find not just an amazing array of expertise in the businesses that advertise here but some of the nicest people you could hope to meet along the way.
Why shouldn't they be? A new home is a big dream for some, a smaller dream for others but when the keys are handed over its always a dream come true.
Good luck with your search, you're starting in the right place...

Warm regards,
Alan Doyle

Curtain's up on musical theatre's greatest hits

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

Recreating West End and Broadway hits with amazing authenticity, Beyond The Barricade is back by public demand.

Giving songs from musical theatre a bold concert treatment it still manages to retain the conviction and delivery of the original performances.

The show returns to Royal & Derngate tomorrow (January 9) at 7.30pm in a sensational concert.

Starring Andy Reiss, David Fawcett, Katie Leeming and Rebecca Vere, together with their own ensemble of talented musicians, this brand new production reflects Beyond the Barricade's 15 year history.

It will feature songs from and array of musicals including The Phantom of the Opera, Miss Saigon, The Lion King, West Side Story, Jesus Christ Superstar, Blood Brothers, The Jersey Boys and many more, with of course a spectacular finale from Les Miserables.

The vocalists in Beyond the Barricade have all played principal roles in Les Miserables, both in the West End and on national tours. And this production includes a special section devoted to this musical.

Tickets cost at £22 and are available by calling 01604 624811 or visiting www.royallandderngate.co.uk

WHAT'SONROUND-UP

Classic ballets direct from Russia with love

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

Moscow City Ballet will be lighting up the stage this month with the dazzling duo of classics, Giselle and Swan Lake.

Swan Lake is performed in all its original splendour by some of the world's finest dancers and Tchaikovsky's unforgettable score faithfully rendered by Russian musicians.

The romantic ballet Giselle will be danced to music by Adolphe Adam.

Both works will be accompanied by Moscow City Ballet Orchestra who will complement the dancers' sublime artistry with live music and a strong narrative, in the grand tradition of the Russian 'big story' ballet.

The audience will marvel at the perfection of its corps de ballet and witness the superb dexterity, grace and vitality of the principal dancers.

Moscow City Ballet was founded in 1988 by Victor Smirnov-Golovanov who died in 2013. It is now run by his wife Ludmila Neroubashchenko.

The company can be seen at Royal & Derngate from January 12 to 17. They will perform Giselle on Monday and Tuesday, and Swan Lake from Wednesday to Saturday.

Performances are at 7.30pm, with 2.30pm matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

Tickets are £16 to £35 from 01604 624811.

Mighty Noel

Noel Fielding, of The Mighty Boosh, Never Mind The Buzzcocks and Luxury Comedy fame, is embarking on his first live tour in five years and is coming to Northampton as part of it.

An Evening With Noel Fielding will stop off at Royal & Derngate on Sunday, November 22.

Fielding has performed in venues all around the world including London's Royal Albert Hall and Radio City Music Hall in New York.

For tickets visit www.royalandderngate.co.uk or call the box office on 01604 624811.

Something for all at Arts at Stowe

Arts at Stowe continues to develop its wide ranging programme which offers something for all.

Red Priest perform with their 'break-all-rules, rock-chamber concert approach to early music' with Handel in the Wind on January 31.

The theatre programme starts with the five star reviewed Grounded in February.

This is a gripping, compulsive play which looks at the life of hot-rod fighter pilot who after becoming pregnant, goes from flying war torn skies to the remote battlefield of flying drones from an office in Las Vegas by day, while striving to be a mother and wife by night.

On March 15, Henning Wehn (the 'German comedy ambassador') pays a visit.

Then it's over to spontaneous musical comedy Showstopper! on March 26 which had sell-out seasons in London's West End and Edinburgh Fringe Festival.

A ticket to a headache

Ridley Scott directs this story of Moses who takes on the might of the Egyptian empire to lead 600,000 slaves to freedom. Does Exodus: Gods and Kings deserve all the stick it's had for all its historical inaccuracies? Probably not, after all it has enough to contend with thanks to smothering CGI and clunky writing.
While Christian Bale puts on a strong performance and has a particularly great scene with Hebrew elder Ben Kingsley the talents of Sigourney Weaver, Aaron Paul and John Turturro are sadly wasted.
With such a star studded line up of great acting talent you expect more from Exodus but the insistence on loads of CGI leaves the cast little room to breathe, let alone act.
The ten plagues are rushed through so quickly it'll make your head spin. If you're hoping for an action packed and emotionally charged story you'll be disappointed as the whole affair simply fails to deliver.

Breakthrough relief for back pain and sciatica

IF YOU suffer from low back pain and sciatica, you are one of over 20 million adults in the UK with this often crippling spinal condition.

Shooting, stabbing and burning pains from the low back, sometimes with additional pain through the buttocks and down the legs are all symptoms of a pinched nerves often called "sciatica".

In severe cases, it can lead to muscle wasting, numbness and constant tingling down to the tip of the toes. Left untreated, the intense pain can rapidly wear you down and drain the joy out of life.

That is, until now...

Recent advances in the treatment of sciatica and lower back pain have led to the development and huge success of Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care.

The excellent results of this treatment have been published in major medical journals. With success rates as high as 90% some back surgeons recommending their patients try this treatment first before having back surgery.

In Bedfordshire, you can try Non-Surgical Re-constructive Spinal Care at the Atlas Wellness Centre – the office of low back pain and sciatica relief expert Peter Olsson.

Peter and his team of fully trained spinal care specialists have helped over 3,000 patients find relief from their agonising back pain and sciatica.

According to Peter, "We use a combination of ultra-advanced technology, not found elsewhere in Bedfordshire, for precisely diagnosing the cause of your low back pain and sciatica; and a unique programme for reconstructing the damaged area causing the pain; this means superior long-term results for most people."

Because the treatment is non-surgical, safe and easy, most patients report an almost immediate relief from their pain.

Patient Jeff P. from Cambridge says, "My back pain was unbearable but the worst thing was the searing burning pain I felt in my buttock and leg.

I couldn't work or do anything useful and the drugs my GP prescribed hardly did anything.

My wife insisted I respond to one of these ads, I thought it would be a total waste of time, but I'm so glad she kept on at me.

Thank god I called your number, I'm 95% better in just a couple of weeks."

Customer Reviews

"As far as we are concerned Millers dealt with the sale of the property in a most professional way."

"You went over and above our expectations in ensuring everything was in place and we moved on the date we aimed for. Your professionalism and manner were second to none, and we would have no hesitation in recommending your services to others going on the property ladder."

"Thank you Matthew. You have been brilliant, I would highly recommend you to friends or family wanting to sell or looking to buy a home."

"We recently completed the purchase of our property through Millers Estate Agents. It was a very positive experience from start to finish and our expectations were managed perfectly. Carl Myers was very professional and we particularly appreciated his frequent updates on the progress of the sale. Nothing was too much trouble. The whole process was a very refreshing and stress free experience. We would not hesitate to use Millers again when looking for a property or selling."

"Depsite not being a great lover of estate agents Millers were a pleasure to work with and would definetly use them in the future."

Inside the new MINI JCW Hatch

Test drive

- £22,865
- Emissions: 133g/km
- 0-62mph 6.1s
- 152mph
- (combined) 49.5 mpg

The MINI John Cooper Works hatch really ups the ante in third generation guise, delivering 231PS, a chassis that has been forensically fettled, lots of the JCW good stuff inside and a price tag that's far from unreasonable. Get in quick. There's going to be a queue for this one.

The last stab MINI had at producing a John Cooper Works was an absolute masterstroke. It was everything proper drivers would demand; fast, well-balanced, fun and it was clearly engineered by people who knew what they were doing. It was the perfect riposte to those who'd held fast MINIs to be all about style rather than substance. This time round, MINI has only built on that reputation. When it comes to making all the right numbers, the JCW hits bullseye every time. What's the old line? "Come at the king, you best not miss."

From 15th January pick up your FREE copy every Thursday!

Like many publishers, we will be reviewing the way we distribute newspapers in 2015. The way in which people consume media is changing, and as a business we must reflect this. It has been necessary to examine our current traditional distribution method which is solely reliant on Door to Door.

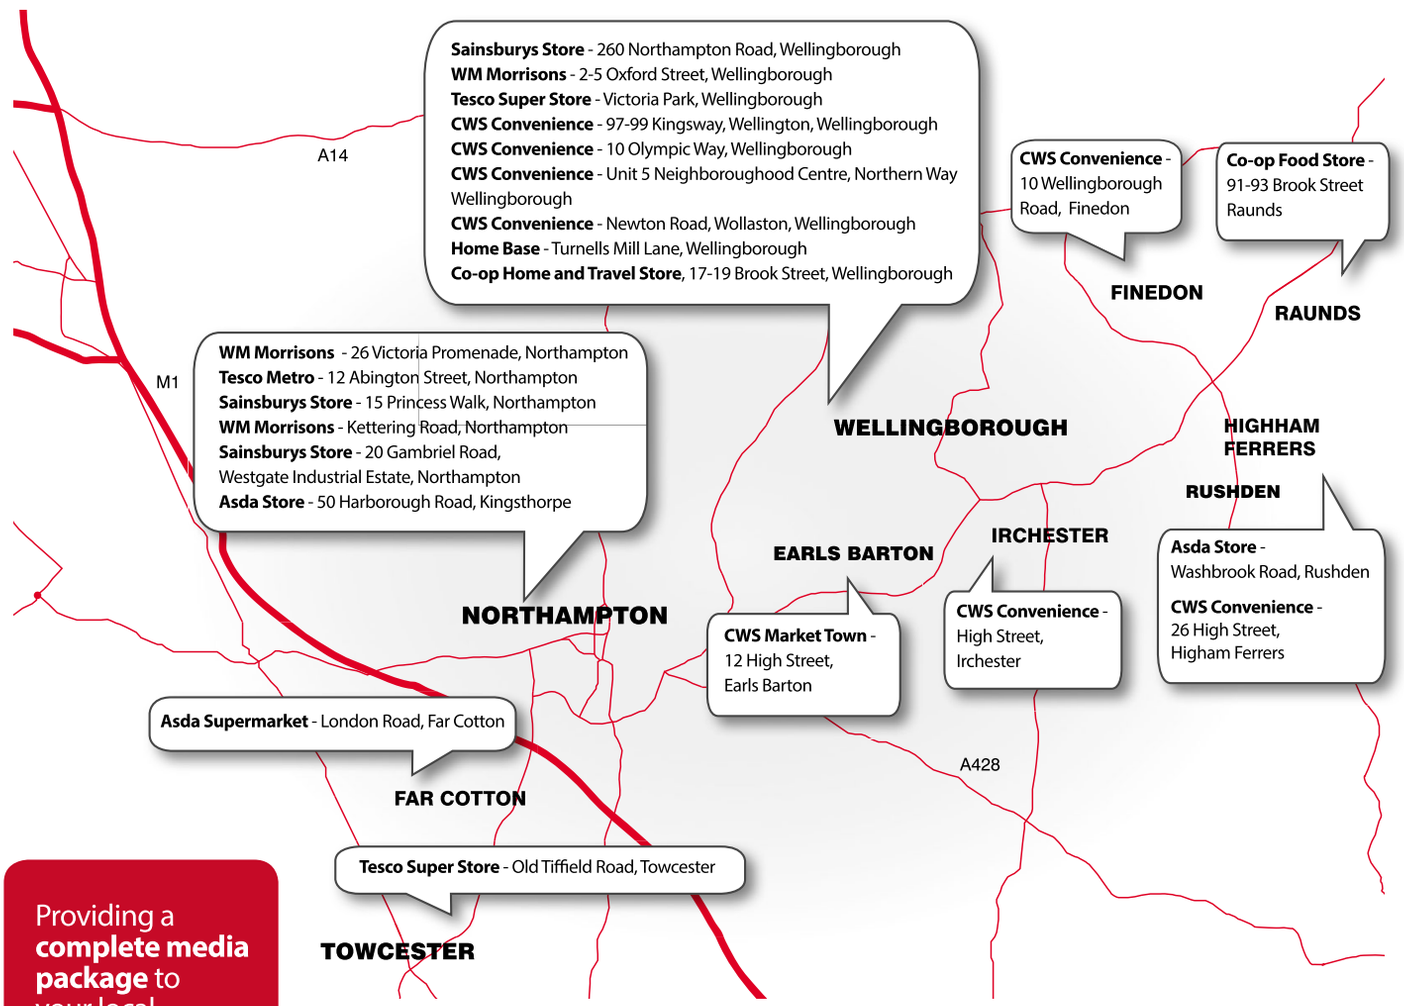

From January, most of our distribution will remain door to door, but in certain areas we will be replacing some copies with free pick up at local supermarkets, including Tesco, Sainsbury, Asda, Co-op, Morrisons and non-traditional outlets. This will enable people to pick up a copy at their convenience and has already proved a very popular method of getting our newspapers to the community in other areas. Quite rightly it has been pointed out that the historic door to door distribution can result in some wastage. By making them available where people spend their lives, someone picking up a copy voluntarily is clearly showing a desire to read the newspaper we produce. This is a much more convenient and targeted way of providing news, information and advertising to our audience.

We will be constantly reviewing this throughout January and looking at locations where we can drop some copies.

So if you know of a suitable location please tell us and we will put this forward for consideration.

Please contact distributionqueriesnorthampton@localworld.co.uk or call the Bedford reception on 01234 304 403

mortimers

Attractive salary package
Dunstable, Beds.

Part of the Mediaforce Group, Mortimers Logistics is an established transport business with a large fleet of HGVs and other vehicles. We are a market leader in the bulk distribution of newspapers and leaflets throughout the UK. Due to continued business growth we are now seeking a Night Transport Supervisor to join the team based at our busy depot in Dunstable.

We are seeking someone with experience of working in a busy transport department. Flexible, with a can do attitude, you will be capable of thinking on your feet and demonstrate the ability to resolve issues effectively, both proactively and reactively.

As a key figure within the leadership team, your responsibilities will include tracking all night vehicles and drivers, while keeping control of the transport plan as necessary, and dealing with any issues. You will keep up to date with driver data, infringement analysis, and keep check on other compliance such as driver and vehicle records. You will also conduct vehicle inspections before and after routes, and provide clear pre-brief and de-brief communication to drivers.

You will have the commitment to cover any vehicle routes if necessary and support and keep check on our warehouse, if required.

This role is working nights during the week and would be flexible as the needs of the business dictate. Applicants must have a LGV licence and FLT experience would be beneficial.

To apply, please send your CV to Bill Smith at bsmith@mortimers.co.uk stating your current salary.

Trio exit Sixfields as Wilder plans Cobblers rebuild fallen down the pecking order and has not featured since November 29.

"He did a great job for us last year," Wilder said. "The market in January last year was a very small one and we needed that type of player in the middle of the park and Ricky did fantastically well.

"He struggled to get into the side this year and he wants to play games.

"He's a footballer and that's what they want to do. He's a great pro to work with and I'm sure he'll do very well at his next club."

Langmead joined the club in the summer of 2011 and was named captain by Aidy Boothroyd a year later.

He made 104 appearances for the club, scoring 12 goals, but his career was interrupted by a knee injury suffered in March 2013.

Meanwhile, head of sports science Craig Smith has also left the club.

"I have been here around a year now and it has given me a chance to assess things," said Wilder.

"Craig has left and he moves on with our thanks for his hard work and our best wishes for the future."

Cresswell: We need to be better in all departments

COBBLERS

BY CIARAN THOMAS
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

Ryan Cresswell believes Northampton Town's January transfer business will benefit the squad, despite seeing three of his team-mates leave the club.

The Cobblers sit 20th in League Two and Cresswell, who returned from injury in Saturday's 1-1 draw with Southend, admits they haven't done well enough this season.

He said it can be hard to see players and friends leave the dressing room, but that the changes were necessary to get the club moving back in the right direction.

"They're your mates but at the end of the day they're your work mates as well," said the midfielder. "You'll always keep in touch and speak to players that leave but it's part and parcel of the game.

"Everyone in the dressing room has been that player that has to leave to go to another club, we appreciated they want to go and play football but on the other hand it's what's best for the club.

"We need to be better in every department, we need to be striving for more success and I think the turnover in players is maybe at the right time.

"If we can get them in now why can't we push on and try and have a good end to the season?"

BACK IN ACTION: Ryan Cresswell Picture: Andy Kearns

Saturday's draw was Cresswell's first appearance after six weeks out with injury, his return co-inciding with the Cobblers ending a five match losing streak, and he said he was glad to be back.

"It was tough having been out injured and coming back for the first game is always going to be tough," he said. "I thought we managed the game quite well and it could have gone either way.

"I thought there was a difference in our approach, the lads who have come in did really well and it was a real team effort, which I think the fans appreciated. I tried to come back sooner than I maybe should have and that's what cost me another week or so but I'm glad to be back playing now.

"Hopefully I can stay in the team until the end of the season and show the fans the reason the gaffer brought me here and repay his faith in signing me and show everyone what I can do."

Opinion: Spirit secures sodden Southend draw

COBBLERS

BY TOM REED
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

Columnist Tom Reed's thoughts after the 1-1 draw with Southend United on Saturday.

The Cobblers belied their lowly league position with a 1-1 draw against promotion hungry Southend United at a sodden Sixfields on Saturday.

The match survived a late pitch inspection after torrential rain, with supporters locked out of the ground until referee Tim Robinson had made his 2pm decision.

Fans allowed inside would have been more difficult to shift given a postponement and Northampton dug their heels in the sloppy turf to break a five-game losing streak and hold Phil Brown's Shrimpers.

Cobblers manager Chris Wilder wasted no time in handing starts to loanees Jason Taylor, Brendan Moloney and Ricky Holmes as Northampton's squad restructuring continued apace.

John-Joe O'Toole claimed the number ten role behind League Two top scorer Marc Richards while Holmes took up a left wing birth with Lawson D'Ath on the right.

Looking for a more balanced approach, Wilder had the luxury of naming attacking full backs Evan Horwood and Moloney – on loan from Yeovil Town – in a combative 4-4-1-1.

Indeed, Northampton aimed to haul in the Shrimpers quickly as the returning Ryan Cresswell sent a monstrous early header off of his former club's bar from a Joel Byrom southpaw free-kick.

Most eye-catching however was Holmes, borrowed from Portsmouth, who showed the guile and free running that had attracted the south coast club to sign him from Barnet.

Meanwhile, O-Toole, fresh from a recent spell at Roots Hall, looked to eat up the yards in the final third but slipped after a good turn in the box on 12 minutes.

Southend gaffer Brown wasn't ruing the O'Toole loan termination as his side showed accurate passing on the counter attack.

United's dinky Shaquille Coulthirst may not be able to dunk like his namesake O'Neal but proved a pest with his pace and willingness to chase the ball.

It was Cobblers' right back Moloney however, eclipsing Ben Tozer in an instant by crossing the halfway line, who threatened to slice open the Shrimpers with a 25th minute run and cross for Richards, who headed over.

Southend could have had the lead when Ben Coker sent a good-looking 20 yard free kick off Matt Duke's right hand post before Spurs loanee Coulthirst hit the rebound off the same upright and Lee Collins cleared.

LEVELLER: Lawson D'Ath Picture: Andy Kearns

O'Toole was heavily involved in an end-to-end affair but wasted two good chances before half time with a penalty box pull back to no-one and a tired shot straight at Daniel Bentley.

Cobblers looked vulnerable in defence however with a seemingly deliberate refusal to block or tackle Southend players around the home penalty box.

Perhaps the wet conditions were to blame but any Shrimper able to turn the Northampton rear-guard was likely to break the deadlock.

Southend had to wait until two minutes after the break to notch however as Duke fumbled an easy Michael Timlin cross into Coulthirst's path to prod over the line.

Again, Cobblers paid the price for naïve defending when a Holmes block on halfway could have stopped a long diagonal ever reaching Timlin.

Wilder responded by replacing a fatigued O'Toole with Emile Sinclair, the rangy forward offering Northampton an immediate out ball to chase. Cobblers' ball carrying came to the fore on 72 minutes to deadly effect as Holmes showed more than elementary dribbling ability to cut across the Southend box and force a smart save from Bentley.

The ball careered out to a waiting Richards on the left who sent in a plum cross for five foot nine D'Ath to rise and place a cute header into the bottom right corner of the Southend net.

Despite the new signings acquitting themselves well, it was fitting in a week when Wilder talked of the mental attributes needed of a resurgent Cobblers that D'Ath put in a man-of-the match shift and secured the point.

Wonder why D'Ath is popular at Sixfields and others less so? Skill? Yes, but his overall work ethic, passion and belief counts for more.

Show a bit of technique worth the entry fee, work hard, care about the club and its community and the Shoe Army will respond.

January arrivals might do well to consider that with Cobblers in 20th place and facing a long trip to Exeter City this weekend.

ENGLAND CREDENTIALS: Calum Clark crosses for his try against Newcastle

Picture: Andy Kearns

Mallinder talks up Clark's credentials with England

SAINTS

BY DAN PALMER
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

Northampton Saints director of rugby Jim Mallinder has backed Calum Clark for an England call-up after the flanker impressed in his side's bonus-point win over Newcastle Falcons.

Clark crossed for one of five Saints tries at Franklin's Gardens on Friday night – Stephen Myler, George Pisi, a penalty score and Luther Burrell the other names on the scoresheet.

Newcastle scored four tries of their own on the night through Chris Harris, George McGuigan, Alex Tait and Richard Mayhew but Mallinder's troops were not to be denied as they won 39-31.

Clark was called up by England for the autumn internationals at the end of last year but did not get the chance to make his Red Rose debut over the four games.

But this year's Six Nations presents a new opportunity and it could be Clark's time to shine according to his director of rugby.

"Calum has been immense for us over the last few weeks," said Mallinder.

"His handling has particularly improved this year. We want our players to play for England and Calum has worked so hard on his game, I think Stuart will be having a serious look at him."

Two of the four Newcastle tries came from driving mauls, a source of concern for Mallinder and his forwards coach Dorian West.

And Mallinder admitted his side will have to improve when they travel north to take on Sale Sharks on Saturday.

"We thought when we got to 30 points it might be an easier win but we switched off and credit to Newcastle they got their driving maul going and we switched off a bit," he added. "We have a tough game next week up against Sale and then two big European games before the England boys leave us.

"There is everything to play for."

Meanwhile, Myler's 17-point contribution in the Newcastle victory, one try, three conversions and two penalties, saw him become only the second Saint to go past the 2,000 point barrier.

He joins Paul Grayson in the exclusive club after more than 135 years of history.

"It's not something I was aware of at the start of the game, but it was something that made me proud when I was made aware of it at the time," said the fly-half.

"It's a proud moment for me to be held in that kind of company. It's not something I ever envisaged when I came to the club, but I'm proud that I've got there and hopefully I can get a few more before my time's up."

Irish prospect JJ will be a Saint next term

SAINTS

Northampton Saints have announced the signing of Munster back JJ Hanrahan – with the 22-year-old joining ahead of the 2015/16 season.

The back is regarded as one of the best young players to have come through the academy system at the Irish club for many years, and was short-listed for Junior World Player of the Year after spearheading Ireland U20's charge to fifth place in the 2012 Junior World Championships.

His Pro 12 and Heineken Cup debuts followed later in 2012, and Kerry-born Hanrahan has now played 51 times for Munster in all competitions, scoring 229 points across domestic and European competition.

"I'm excited by the challenge that awaits me at Northampton Saints and I hope that I can help continue the club's recent successes in England and to challenge for European honours," said Hanrahan.

"I was hugely impressed by the set-up at Franklin's Gardens.

"Like Munster, Northampton is a club that has a proud history, great structures and a passionate local supporter base. I am really looking forward to testing myself in a new environment.

"I have had nothing but positive experiences at Munster. It is my home club and running out in the red jersey has been and remains a great privilege.

"The coaching staff, from the Academy through to the senior coaches, have been brilliant with me since I entered the Academy.

"I remain fully committed to the Munster cause in the Pro 12 and the European Champions Cup for the remainder of the season."

The last year has seen Hanrahan's career continue to develop positively. As well as winning the Pro 12's Golden Boot as the competition's most accurate kicker last season he took home the 2014 Munster Young Player of the Year award, recognition for contributions that included a late match-winning Heineken Cup try in Perpignan, kicking 10 goals out of 10 in the province's record win over Cardiff Blues, and man of the match awards in successive matches against Zebre and Glasgow.

Hanrahan has also taken the step up from the U20s to Emerging Ireland, who he helped win the IRB Nations Cup last summer.

Saints director of rugby Jim Mallinder is excited by the signing.

"JJ is a tremendous prospect," he said. "He has consistently shown that he has the ability to compete at the highest level of club rugby.

"But while we are looking forward to having JJ join us in the summer we are particularly excited about seeing him develop over the coming years at Franklin's Gardens."

No time for emotion

Chris Wilder had no room for sentiment after he continued his busy start to the January transfer window by overseeing the exits of Kelvin Langmead, Ricky Ravenhill and Alex Nicholls.

Both defender Langmead and midfielder Ravenhill have departed following the early termination of their contracts while striker Nicholls has signed permanently with Exeter City after his short term deal was not renewed.

The departures follow Cobblers boss Wilder's triple swoop for Cheltenham Town midfielder Jason Taylor, Portsmouth winger Ricky Holmes and Yeovil Town full-back Brendan Moloney, giving the squad a new-look feel after the side's slump to 20th place in League Two, just three points away from the relegation places.

"The club moves on and I've got to take the emotion out of it, and do what's best for the football club," said Wilder.

"I have to back the judgement of myself and the coaching staff. With the chairman we work very closely together and have got a clear view about where we want to go with this football club.

"I always thank the players for the contributions they made, whether they were before me or have been with me, but we have to focus on the players that are going to take us to the next level."s

Nicholls signed a contract at Sixfields until January in August, after being sidelined for nearly two years thanks to a broken leg suffered in October 2012.

He has now penned an 18-month contract at Exeter where he spent two spells on loan this season and, in a further plot-line, could face the Cobblers on Saturday when the two sides meet in League Two in Devon.

The 27-year-old made 11 appearances for Northampton this season and found the net once against AFC Wimbledon.

"He [Nicholls] did fantastically well to get back form a horrific injury and he needed to be playing football," said Wilder. "He's found a home there [at Exeter] and I wish him all the best.

"You have ideas on how you want to play and how you want to go about people, and you keep people that you want to build around and you give opportunities to other people.

"It's no disrespect to Alex, we just wanted to go a different way, some managers want certain types of players and some want others."

Ravenhill signed an 18 month contract a year ago, but after playing an integral part in helping the Cobblers secure League Two safety last season he has
